INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF ENRICH PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT LIMITED

(Incorporated in Hong Kong and Limited by Guarantee)

We have audited the financial statements of Enrich Personal Development Limited set out on pages 4 to 10, which comprise the statement of financial position as at 30th June, 2012, and the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in funds and statement of cash flows for the year ended 30th June, 2012, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

Directors' responsibility for the financial statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Entity's preparation and true and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Notes to the Financial Statements
for the year ended 30th June, 2012

1. Entity Information

The Entity is a company incorporated in Hong Kong with limited by guarantee.

The Entity's registered office is located at Room 501, Prosperous Building, 48 Des Voeux Road Central, Hong Kong.

The principal activity of the Entity during the year was provide practical training on financial literacy and communication courses to migrant workers and ethnic minority women.

2. Summary of Accounting Policies

a. Basis of Preparation of Accounts

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (HKFRSs) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and the requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention except as disclosed in the accounting policies below.

b. New and Revised HKFRSs

The Entity has initially applied the new and revised HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA that are first effective or available for early adoption for accounting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2011.

The directors of the Entity anticipate that the application of these standards, amendment or interpretations will have no material impact on the Entity's results of operations and financial position.

c. Revenue Recognition

- i) Donation income is recognized when donation is received.
- ii) Other income, including course fee income is recognized when received.

d. Impairment of Assets

Internal and external sources of information are reviewed at each end of reporting period to identify indications that assets may be impaired or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased. If any such indication exists, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. The recoverable amount of an asset is the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and value in use. An impairment loss is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income whenever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount.

An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount and which results in an increase in the recoverable amount. A reversal of impairment losses is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized in prior years. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to the statement of comprehensive income in the year in which the reversals are recognised.

e. Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition.

Notes to the Financial Statements
for the year ended 30th June, 2012

2. Summary of Accounting Policies (Cont'd)

f. Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Entity has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle that obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are measured at the management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the obligation at the end of reporting period, and are discounted to present value where the effect is material.

g. Retirement Benefit Costs

Payments to Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme are charged as expenditure when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

3. Accounting Estimates and Judgments

In preparing these financial statements, certain assumptions and estimates have been made by management of the Entity. The accuracy of these assumptions and estimates are continuously reviewed by management with reference to actual results, historical experience and other factors, including projection of future cash flows and possible outcomes from future events. Directors believe that the assumptions and estimates made are reasonable and supportable.

4. Financial Risk Management

The Entity's major financial instrument is bank deposit. The risks associated with this financial instrument and the policy applied by the Entity to mitigate the risk is set out below. Management monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented in a timely and effective manner.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Entity is not able to meet its obligations and commitments as they fall due. The Entity monitors the liquidity risk by performing cash flow analysis on a regular basis.

Credit risk

The Entity is exposed to credit risk, which is the risk that a counterparty may default on its bank deposits. The Entity's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Entity in the event of the counterparty's failure to perform their obligations at the end of reporting period in relation to each class of recognised financial assets as stated in the statement of financial position.

For bank deposits, the Entity limits its exposure by placing funds only with investment grade licensed banks as approved by Hong Kong Monetary Authority.
